

Supplementary Material

This section evaluates some visual results using the same scene.

Fig. 1: Comparison of different imaging techniques under varying levels of light saturation. The columns represent three different methods: Saturated, Modulo, and Recovery. The rows illustrate the results for different values of the scaling factor  $\alpha$ , ranging from 1.5 to 8.

