

Figure 1: The original MSP score results in a significant overlap between ID and OOD, leading to poor performance. After applying GRASP, the ID scores are significantly increased, resulting in a better distinction between ID and OOD, which greatly reduces the FPR (the shaded area with diagonal lines).