Introduction 1

Introduction

A computer program has learned to drive a car using four human-defined concepts.

The four concepts are:

1. Accelerate
2. Brake
3. Turn Left
4. Turn Right

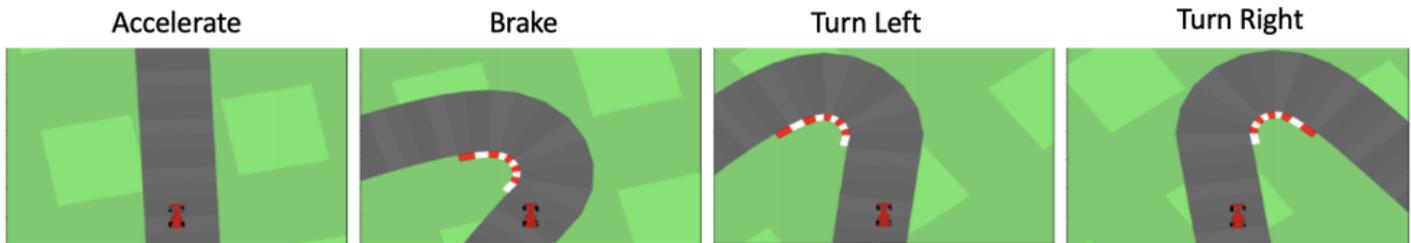

Important: In all images you see, the car is constantly moving forward.

Introduction 2

Introduction

To explain what the car understands by these four concepts, it visualizes them for people using these four images. Please study them now to see if they make sense to you, and if you think the car has learned the concepts correctly. The car drives based on how similar its situation is to each concept.

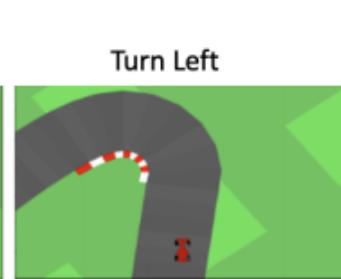

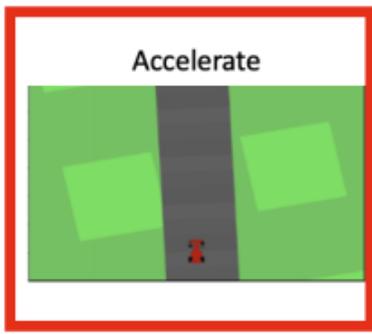

The actions associated with each concept are above each picture.

Introduction acc

Introduction

So, the car will take the action ACCELERATE in situations it thinks are similar to this.

Introduction brake

Introduction

The car will take the action BRAKE in situations it thinks are similar to this.

Introduction left

Introduction

The car will take the action TURN LEFT in situations it thinks are similar to this.

Introduction Right

Introduction

The car will take the action TURN RIGHT in situations it thinks are similar to this.

Introduction combine

Introduction

Lastly, the car can combine concepts, and will TURN RIGHT and BRAKE at the same time in situations that it thinks are similar to both of these.

Example 3

Example

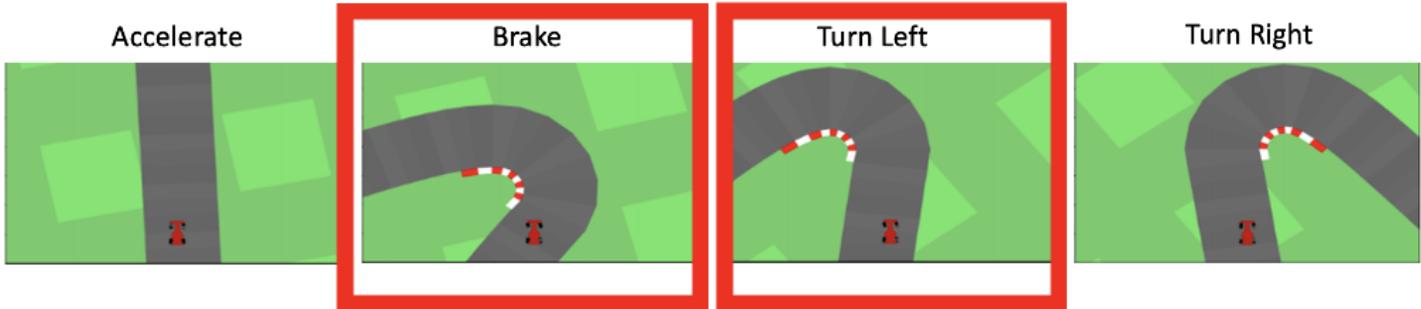

As another example, here the situation is visually similar to the concepts "Brake" and "Turn Left".

So the car is likely going to turn left, brake, and drive safely.

Situation

Concepts

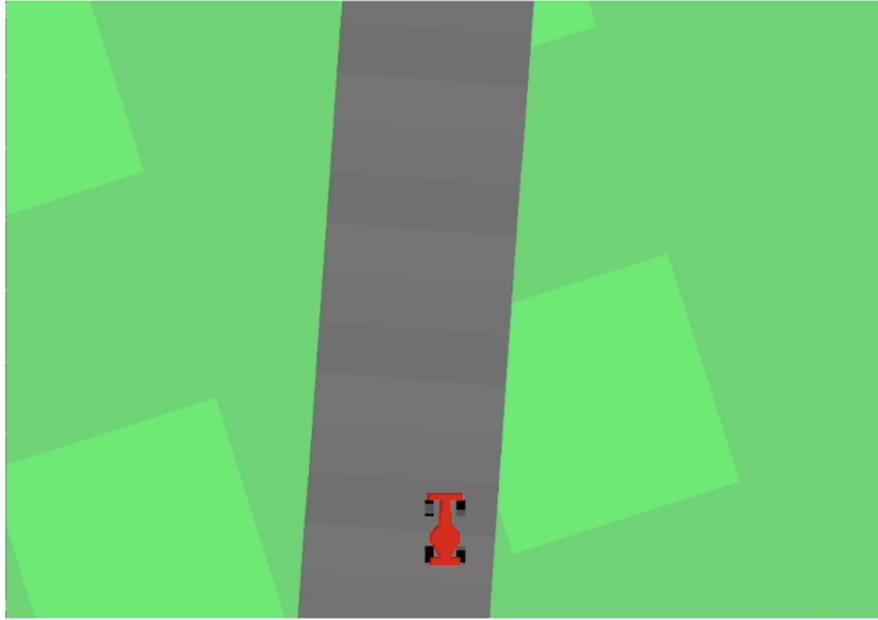

Example 4

Example

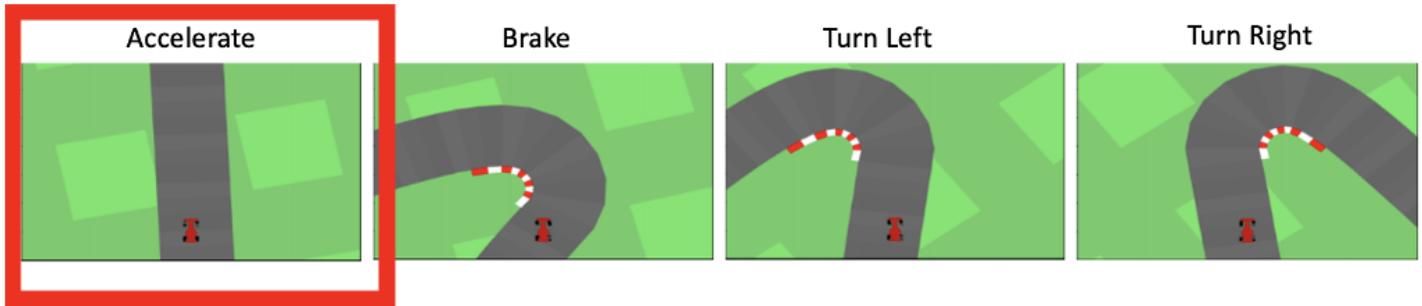

Lastly, here the situation is visually similar to the concept "Accelerate".

So the car is likely going to accelerate and drive safe.

Situation

Concepts

Block 52

Introduction

It is up to you to look at the current situation, and guess what actions the car is going to take.

Your Task

Your Task!

However, even if the car has learned to drive well, it cannot drive safely when it encounters situations which are EXTREMELY different to the concepts it has learned.

It is up to you to decide if this is happening.

So, there are two main things you want to consider when predicting if the car will crash:

1. Is the actions the car is going to take safe in the situation?
2. Is the current situation so different to the learned concepts that the car has no idea what to do?

Title

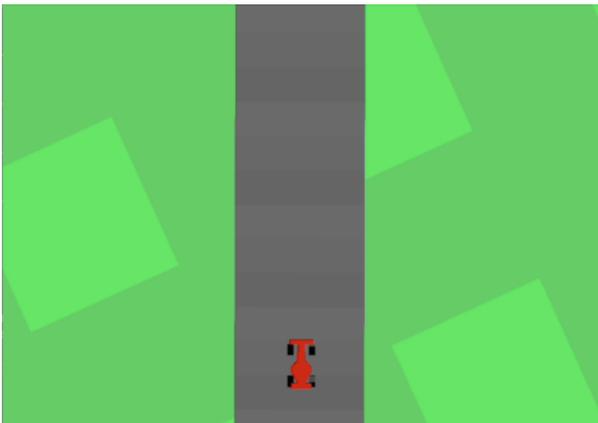

Press Next For The Task Instructions

Instructions 1

Instructions

Initially, note the car's situation and the road ahead it must try to navigate safely.

Step 1: Note the Situation

Example 2

Example

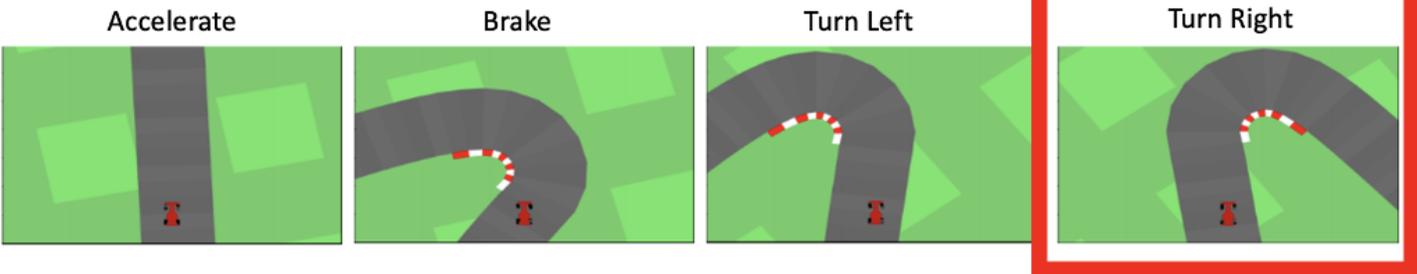

So, for example, here the situation is visually similar to the concept "Turn Right".

So the car is likely going to turn right and avoid crashing.

Situation

Concepts

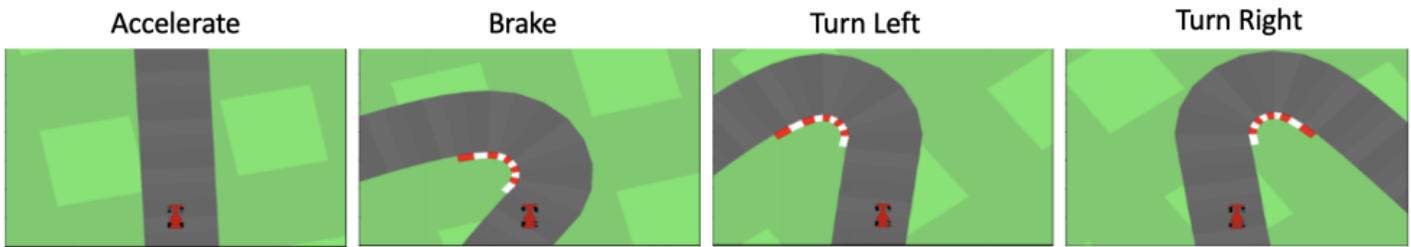

Instructions 2

Instructions

Secondly, recall the learned concepts (these will NEVER change).

Step 2: Recall the car's learned concepts

Instructions 3

Instructions

Lastly, predict if the car will drive safely through the road ahead, and your confidence in this prediction.

There are five options ranging from "Strongly Disagree" to "Strongly Agree".

Step 3:

	Strongly Disagree				Strongly agree
The car will drive safely in this situation	<input type="radio"/>
I am confident in this prediction	<input type="radio"/>

Red Obstacles

Red Obstacles

Lastly, there are red obstacles scattered throughout the roads

If the car crashes into these it will not drive safely.

Block 50

Remember, you are trying to predict what the computer program is going to do here while driving the car!!!

You are NOT trying to convey how you would personally drive.

I think that I would like to use this system frequently.

I found the system unnecessarily complex.

I thought the system was easy to use.

I think that I would need the support of a technical person to be able to use this system.

I found the various functions in this system were well integrated.

I thought there was too much inconsistency in the system.

I would imagine that most people would learn to use this system very quickly

I found the system very cumbersome to use.

I felt very confident using the system.

I needed to learn a lot of things before I could get going with this system.
